Dear Don:

Following our conversation the other day, I asked my security people to examine the current listing of people associated with your office who hold clearances provided by this Agency.

As you suspected, this examination indicates the current listing does indeed contain names no longer associated with PSAC. Would you or your staff review the attached listing and indicate any deletions or additions you desire.

You may also wish to examine the distribution of such clearances in the light of changing responsibilities within your office and PSAC itself. When you return this list, we will take the necessary steps to update the clearance situation.

Sincerely yours,

Albert D. Wheelon
Deputy Director
